FOR a number of years the big problem concerning international goodwill has been confronting the people of the United States; this problem has grown, until now it is one of the vital questions of the day. In the years to come the question of international relations will become more and more important. If the nations of the world are to advance in knowledge, science, and art, they must be strongly interlocked in friendship and understanding. We believe that the only hope of rescuing civilization from its present plight is to make the oneness of the whole body of nations the ruling principle of international affairs. ¶ Today, a nation-wide campaign is being carried on through the schools to promote understanding between ourselves and our foreign neighbors. We have here in Fresno High School an organization that is devoting time and effort toward the formation of ideals that will effect a unity of spirit among the many nationalities represented in Fresno High School. This organization under the able direction of Miss Ethel Stubblefield, is called the International Friendship Club. As students, most of us are acquainted with the activities of this club; so they need not be stated here. The members of this organization deserve much credit for the splendid work that they have accomplished since this organization has been in existence; and it would be a step in the right direction if every student in Fresno High School would take a livelier interest in the activities of the International Friendship Club. So this year, in order that we, the staff of the 1932 Owl, might support the present movement for closer international relations, have selected an International Theme for our annual. ¶ It is with this thought in view that the staff presents the 1932 Owl to the students of Fresno High School, knowing that they will become a part of America's international affairs of tomorrow.

Principal Gaines' Message to the Seniors

TO learn one must see and hear and think. To succeed one must strive. To live one must grow. If the three short years spent here mean that we have learned better how to study, how to work, how to live, they will have been well worth while. Education, however, does not stop with the end of formal schooling, Fresno High School but starts us on the path. It is for each of us to continue thinking, working, learning throughout life.

Farewell, graduates of 1932. Here you have studied; here you have worked; here you have lived. You leave behind an enviable record of service. We know that you will continue throughout the years, the same efforts towards growth, success, life. Good Luck!

Dean Farver's Greetings to the Splendid Girls of Fresno High

May you become tomorrow the splendid women so necessary to the best citizenship. It has been a real pleasure to plan for you and work with you this year. Perhaps we have not always reached the heights of achievement toward which we have aimed, but we have grown in the spirit of friendship with each other, loyalty to the best interests of our school, and ambition to work for higher standards.

More keenly than ever have I felt that spirit of cooperation with a smile and zest, which makes duty and work a joy as well as a success.

Class of 1932

THE current year has witnessed the development of the graduating class into one of the most active organizations on the campus. At the beginning of the year, after choosing rings and pins, we selected a senior dress which would distinguish us from the rest of the school. Then, continuing a custom of three years' standing, we published the "32 U-Tellem," a bi-weekly paper containing news of the class and of the school.

During the winter Commencement week we did several notable things, starting what we hope will become certain senior traditions. The afternoon of Baccalaureate Sunday we enjoyed a tea at which the low seniors served as hosts to the graduating seniors, their parents, and the faculty. Impressive Baccalaureate Services were held in the First Congregational Church, Dr. Norman B. Henderson delivering the address. On Senior Dress-Up Day we presented the "Ducky Wucky Jamboree," a radio studio burlesque, in assembly. This proved so popular that it was repeated for several city organizations and broadcasted over The Bee Station K. M. J. The Jamboree was followed by a theatre party at the Wilson and a frolic in the F. H. S. Cafeteria. Thursday morning we had our plaque dedication. The speaker, Mr. Fred Swartz, told us of responsibilities ahead when we enter life's duties.

Commencement Exercises included several innovations. There were four student speakers (two selected for scholarship and two for superior service in class activities), and individual presentation of diplomas by a member of the Fresno City Board of Education.

As the second semester began, we were deeply engrossed in our Senior Play, "In a Mission Garden," given the afternoon and evening of April 8th. Continuing the motif used last year in our Junior-Senior Prom, this play depicted scenes of romance and adventure during the Spanish Mission days of Alta, California. The magnificent cast of '32ers included, besides the speaking parts, a group of "Spanish" and "Indian" singers, dancers, and musicians.

As the school year came to an end we entered upon the spring senior week, similar in plan to that of the winter. In addition, we participated in the Junior-Senior Brawl, and also held a picnic. The 1932 gift to the school was presented.

Going out into the world we look back upon our years in Fresno High as the happiest ones of our lives. We will remember especially the members of the class of 1932. Working in it has taught us to fight ever onward, and to carry always forward the banner bearing our motto:

"Invicti Sumus"

Class of 1932 Song

(Words and Music by Jack Ritchey)

*Oh, we're the Class of Nineteen Thirty-two!
Our colors green and gold wave high.
Our task is done; we say farewell to you,
For we must leave old Fresno High;
And seek a higher goal
Which beckons from afar,
And half reveals success in view
For us, the members of this good old class
Of Nineteen Thirty-two!*

*Oh, we're the Class of Nineteen Thirty-two!
We've tried our best and not in vain;
We're passing on but not forgetting you.
Companions, friends, we'll meet again,
And teachers, kind, our hearts are sad
At leaving Fresno High
And happy days we've spent with you.
Remember to the last this good old class
Of Nineteen Thirty-two!*

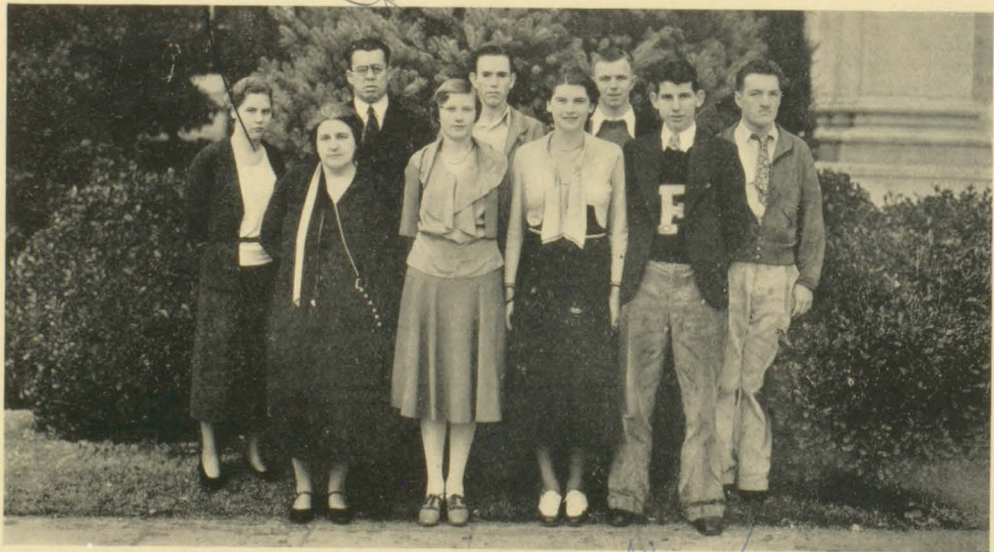

Class of 1933

THE Good Ship "1933," which was launched in February, 1930, having completed a successful voyage over an uncharted Sophomore Sea, dropped anchor in September at the home port of Fresno High School, with Captain James Quinn and a crew of merry Juniors aboard. The Captain learned that the voyage for the Junior Year had been charted carefully by preceding Junior adventurers, with the first port of call "Junior Farce." With decided success and with the cooperation of their fellow passengers and many friends, twenty members of the crew presented "Adam and Eva." Passing through a period of preparation, the members contributed of their talent to the Christmas Community program, "The Little Town of Bethlehem;" and then the traditional Port of Commencement was reached. Here the members of the Junior crew ushered and decorated for the senior class. Having guided the Good Ship "1933" to the port of the Second Semester, Captain James Quinn retired, and Skipper Paul Minor was chosen as pilot for the next voyage.

With sturdy hearts and willing hands the members of the crew rallied to the support of their Captain in putting over a Junior-Senior Prom on May 7, which contributed to the social life of the participants. The Good Ship "1933" continued merrily on its way through the troubled waters of a second commencement and completed a successful voyage to the Home harbor at the close of the year.

By their enthusiastic support of all traditions, and by progress in friendliness and service while anchored in the harbor of Fresno High School, the members of the Good Ship "1933" have safely reached the Port—Senior Class. With a feeling of courage to carry on, and awe at new responsibilities to be assumed, the final journey is begun. Heading for the biggest adventure of all—graduation, the members of the crew of the Good Ship "1933" drop anchor in the port of Fresno High School determined to be good citizens while in port, and ready to be on deck when the new skipper gives the call for the final voyage of the three years' cruise. Bon Voyage, 1933!

The Cigarette and the Mood

Blue gray smoke, wavering but slightly
In a narrow stream up to the ceiling,
Fading into nothing on its way,
Issuing from a little torch thing
So immaculate in its white paper,
Laid lightly, caressingly, between two fingers
Wafted to and fro,
Claimed by lovely lips for just an instance,
Then tossed aside and ground into the earth.
Existence, so optimistically called life,
Burning slowly like a cigarette,
Till 'tis drained of every spark
And thrown to the earth and crushed beyond endurance,
Wasted, lifeless thing and quite forgotten.
God struck the match to light it,
Watched it burn and die;
Then took it home.

—BARBARA McELROY.

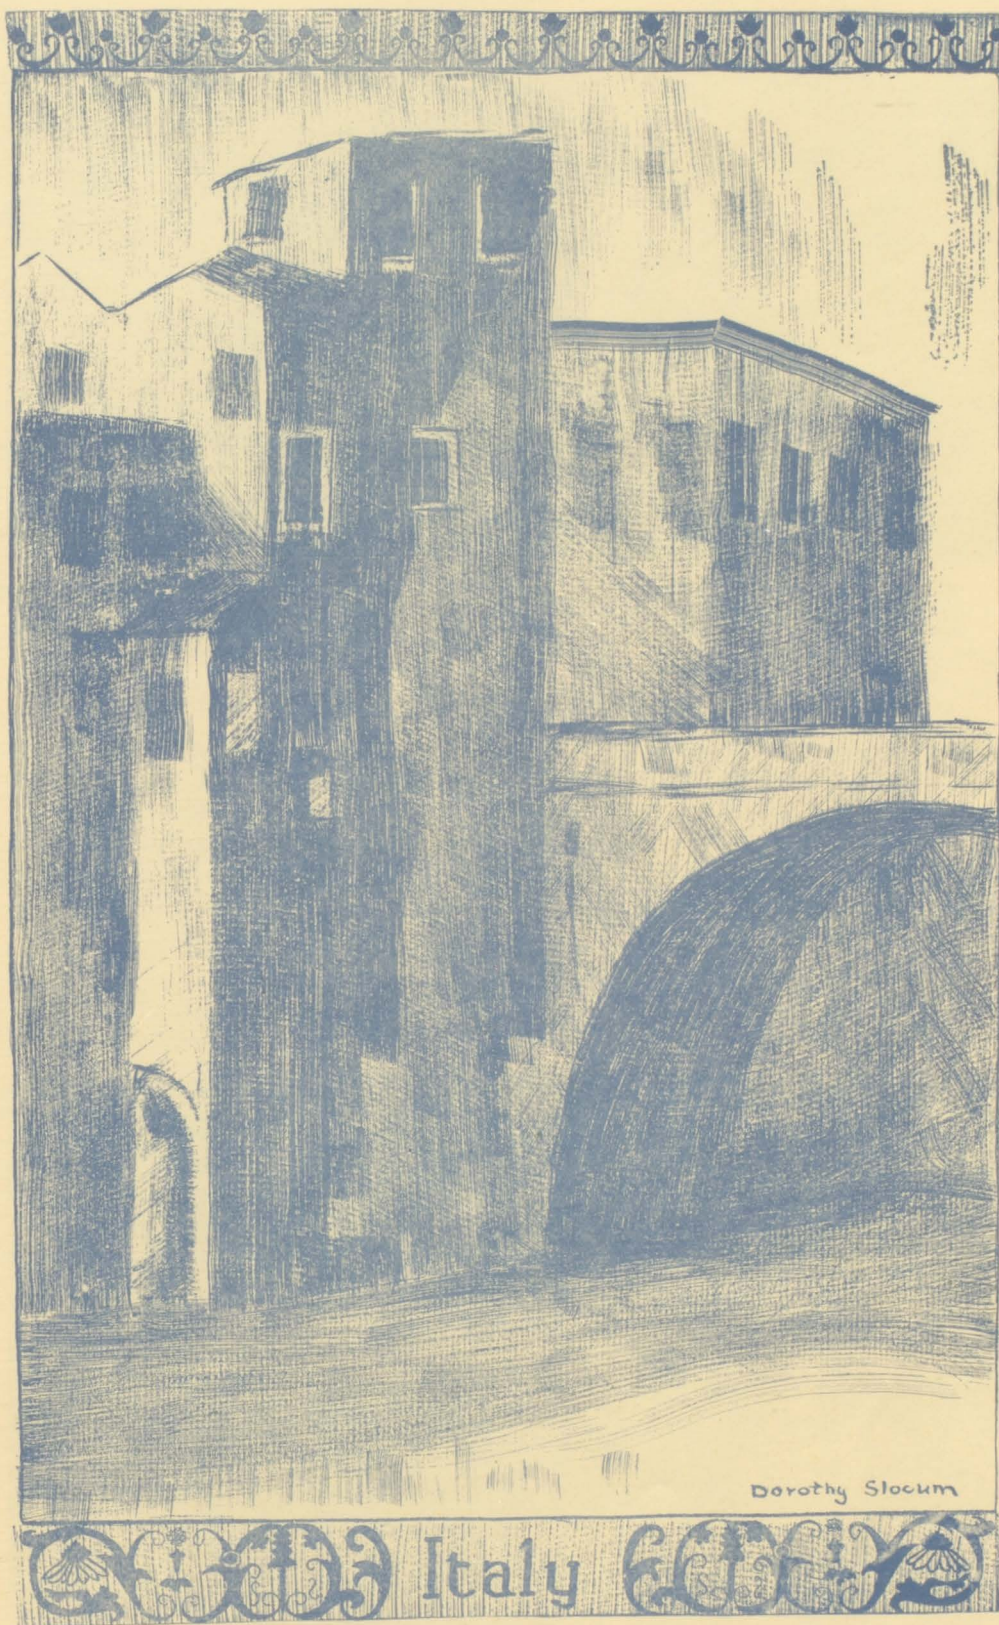

Ghost

Just why do you hide in my sandwich?
And why must you swim in my tea?
No matter how much I beg you
To please stay away from me.
You manage to lurk in my pathway,
To hide behind bushes and chairs;
And when I think I have lost you,
You sneak up on me unawares.
You live in the smoke of my fire;
You smile from the branches of trees;
You make me utterly wretched;
Oh, leave me alone, dear spook please.
'Twas there that we danced in the moonlight,
And there we have often had tea,
But why do you make me remember?
Go 'way and stop pestering me.
I have resolved not to remember
But once in a while, at the most;
And then you appear to beset me
You insolent, aching old ghost.

—BARBARA McELROY.

Co-Op

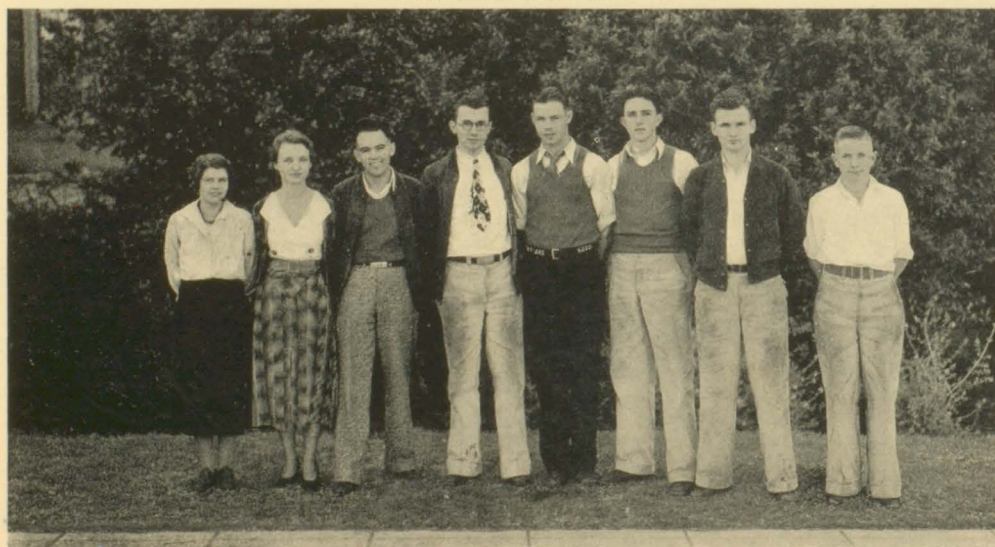

ANY students do not realize the great benefits afforded them by the store, which has become an integral part of the school. It is not only a convenient place for purchasing school supplies, candy, ice cream, school belts, and pennants at a low cost, but the profit on sales is turned into the school treasury. Were it not for this profit a tax of approximately two dollars per student would have to be levied to finance the various school activities. The students feel that the store well deserves their patronage, as all profits go to the Associated Student Body. As the Co-op is a student owned, controlled, and supported institution, every student in Fresno High School has the right to expect good service as well as reasonable prices. This year the Co-op has been even more successful than in years past in lowering the prices of school supplies, while at the same time maintaining high quality merchandise.

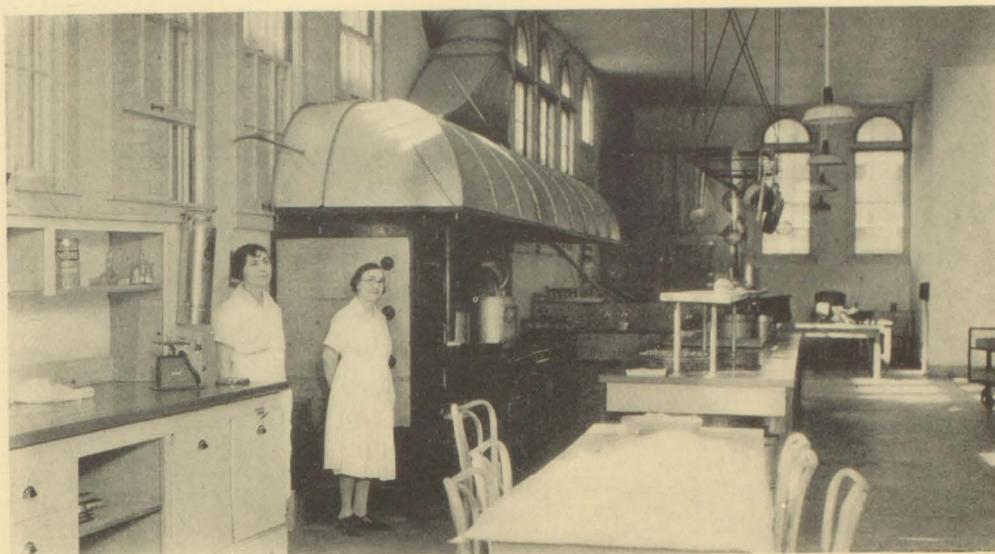

It is the aim of the student manager and his staff to improve the service even more during the coming year.

During the fall semester the store was under the managership of Paul Bartlett. The assistant manager was Gerald Gard. Other employees were Claude Callaway, Earl Dillion, Wilma Conn, and George Solnar. At the beginning of the spring semester Gerald Gard took over the managership of the Co-op with the following staff: Earl Dillon, assistant manager; Marjorie Cribb, Charles Williams, Glen Steward, Arnold Williams and Dorothy Hudson as assistants. All these students gained very valuable experience in salesmanship.

The Co-op is under the supervision of Maidie Graves.

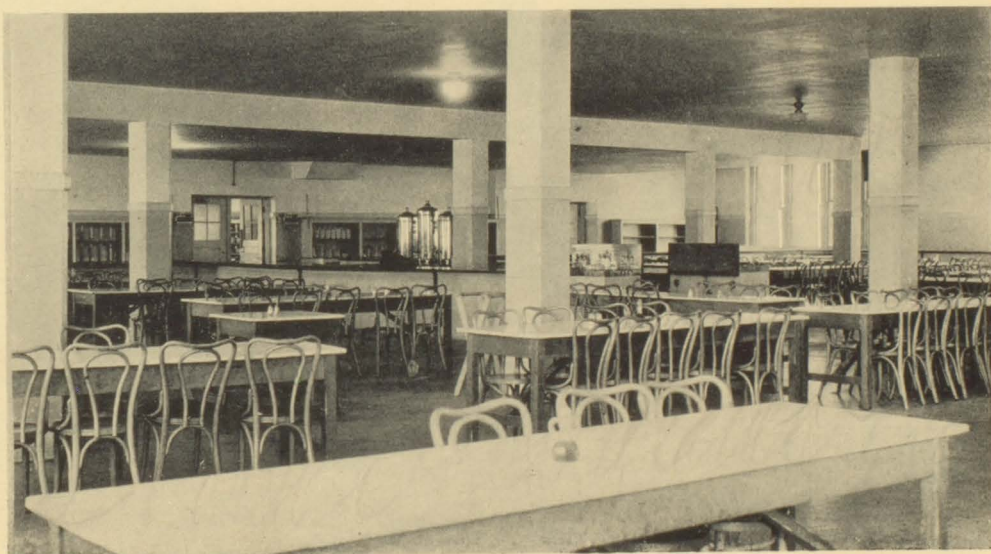

Marjorie Cribb, Mrs. Graves, George Solnar, Earl Dillon, Arnold Williams, Gerald Gard, Charles Williams, Glen Steward.

Cafeteria

FRESNO HIGH SCHOOL boasts a school cafeteria at which an effort is made to provide a variety of wholesome, well-cooked food. Soups, vegetables, salads, meat dishes, desserts, half-pint bottles of milk, chocolate, and orange juice play a large part in the daily menus. This year, the price for all foods has been lowered, enabling students to obtain nourishing food at a minimum price. This reduction was made possible by hiring less outside help, and also by securing more help from the students. The Cafeteria is the busiest place on the campus during the noon hour, where two hundred twenty-five people are fed every day.

Girls' Glee Club

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB is one of the largest musical organizations in Fresno High School. It is under the direction of Mrs. McGaw. During the first semester, the club furnished music for Monday morning assemblies. During the second semester the girls were busy with the production of "The Mikado," and later with practicing for the May Festival.

Boys' Glee Club

Again the Boys' Glee Club has been under the able direction of Dr. Mitchell Briggs. The boys participated in programs given by the school, and appeared before the service clubs of the city. One of the main achievements of the year was the assistance given in the production of "The Mikado."

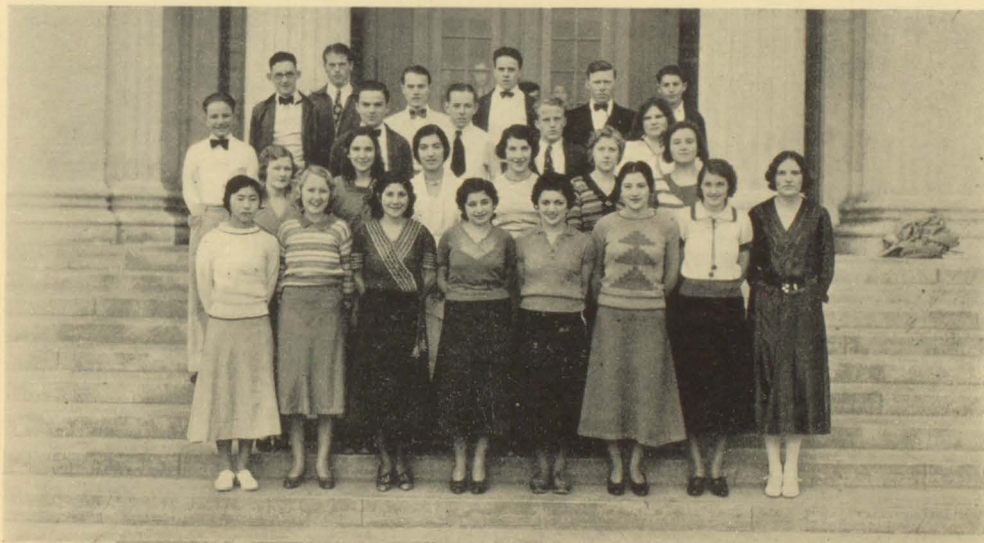

The Girls' Trio

FOR the past year Fresno High School has been fortunate in having a girls' trio whose harmony has charmed many an audience. This group was composed of Cula West, soprano; Lillian Sturgeon, mezzo, and Alice Elmassion, contralto. Mrs. Claire McGaw, musical director of Fresno High, was their director and accompanist.

Mixed Chorus

The Mixed Chorus is another organization that has rendered service many times for clubs, lodges, and school affairs. The Mixed Chorus helped on the Christmas Community Night program. Without the help of the Mixed Chorus, "The Mikado" would not have been the success that it was. To the senior play this group gave of its time and its talent.

Orchestra and Band

MEMBERS of the orchestra were George Aki, Erma Behlen, John Espitalier, Elmer Finderup, John Kokinos, Ralph Kuettel, John Russell, Vernon Wells, violins; Gladys Bingham, Catherine Cope, piano; Walter Calkins, John Kasadian, saxophone; Saxon Cole, trombone; Bob Crump, Fred Vogt, clarinet; Dick Naylor, cornet; George Smith, drums.

Members of the Fresno High School Band were Austin, Bratton, Carinelli, Clark, Dean, Graham, cornet; Brandon, Crump, Rheiner, Roughton, Scott, Smith, clarinet; Dix, Farris, Del Hyde, Harry Hyde, Jellidian, Saito, saxophone; Classford, Mayes, Russell, Smith, drums; Capozzi, Hines, bass; Kokinor, Koligian, melophone; Stange, Stitt, Fare, Webster, trumpet; Witham, trombone; Shelton, oboe; Karl Smith, baritone.

The Mikado

The outstanding attraction by the music department was "The Mikado," given on the evening of March fourth. The production was directed by Claire McGaw and Dr. Briggs. The orchestra was in charge of Mr. Will Hays. Cula West displayed remarkable talent in the role of Yum-Yum, as did John Byrne in the roll of Ko-Ko.

Drama _____

In a Mission Garden

"IN A MISSION GARDEN" was presented by the Class of 1932, assisted by the various departments of the school. Alton Williams and Mr. Tetstall directed the preparation of properties and scenery. Claire McGaw and Will Hays had charge of the music. Nella Belle Scott and Miss Mabel Kaljian coached the dances. Ralph Clanton and the dramatics class were responsible for the make-up. Francis Rogers and John Smale assisted as class sponsors; while Marguerite Harbers served as a most capable director.

Adam and Eva

"ADAM AND EVA," a three-act comedy, was the offering of the Class of 1933. There were two performances given, with an entirely different cast of characters for each performance. The class was very fortunate in having as directors of the play, Mrs. Marguerite Harbers, one of the outstanding directors in the entire city.

The Class of 1933 may well be proud of the members of both casts. Each one performed his or her role very satisfactorily. The dramatic ability of the Junior Class will be quite an asset to the future productions of the school.

Washington Bicentennial

ALL the schools of Fresno City participated in a patriotic pageant, "The Days of Washington," written and directed by Mrs. W. L. Potts. She deserves much credit for the impressive program of patriotic songs, dances, and historical plays that was presented. Briefly stated, the program was as follows:

Scenes of Old Plantation Days in Virginia.
The American School where Washington Learned to Read and Write.
The Church of Colonial Times.
The Colonial Home in Washington's Time.
Ye Olde Colonial Shoppe.

Fresno High School presented two numbers.

Men are such fools.
They give up so easily.
Something goes wrong,
Some trivial thing,
Amounting to nothing.
They waste their lives
Pining for the things
They've lost,
Instead of looking ahead
Working for things within reach.

Fate is unkind;
They think God is cruel;
They miss the best things;
Throw away beauty for comfort;
They walk on blindly;
They stumble,
Fall,
Rise,
And make progress.

—DOROTHY FISHER.

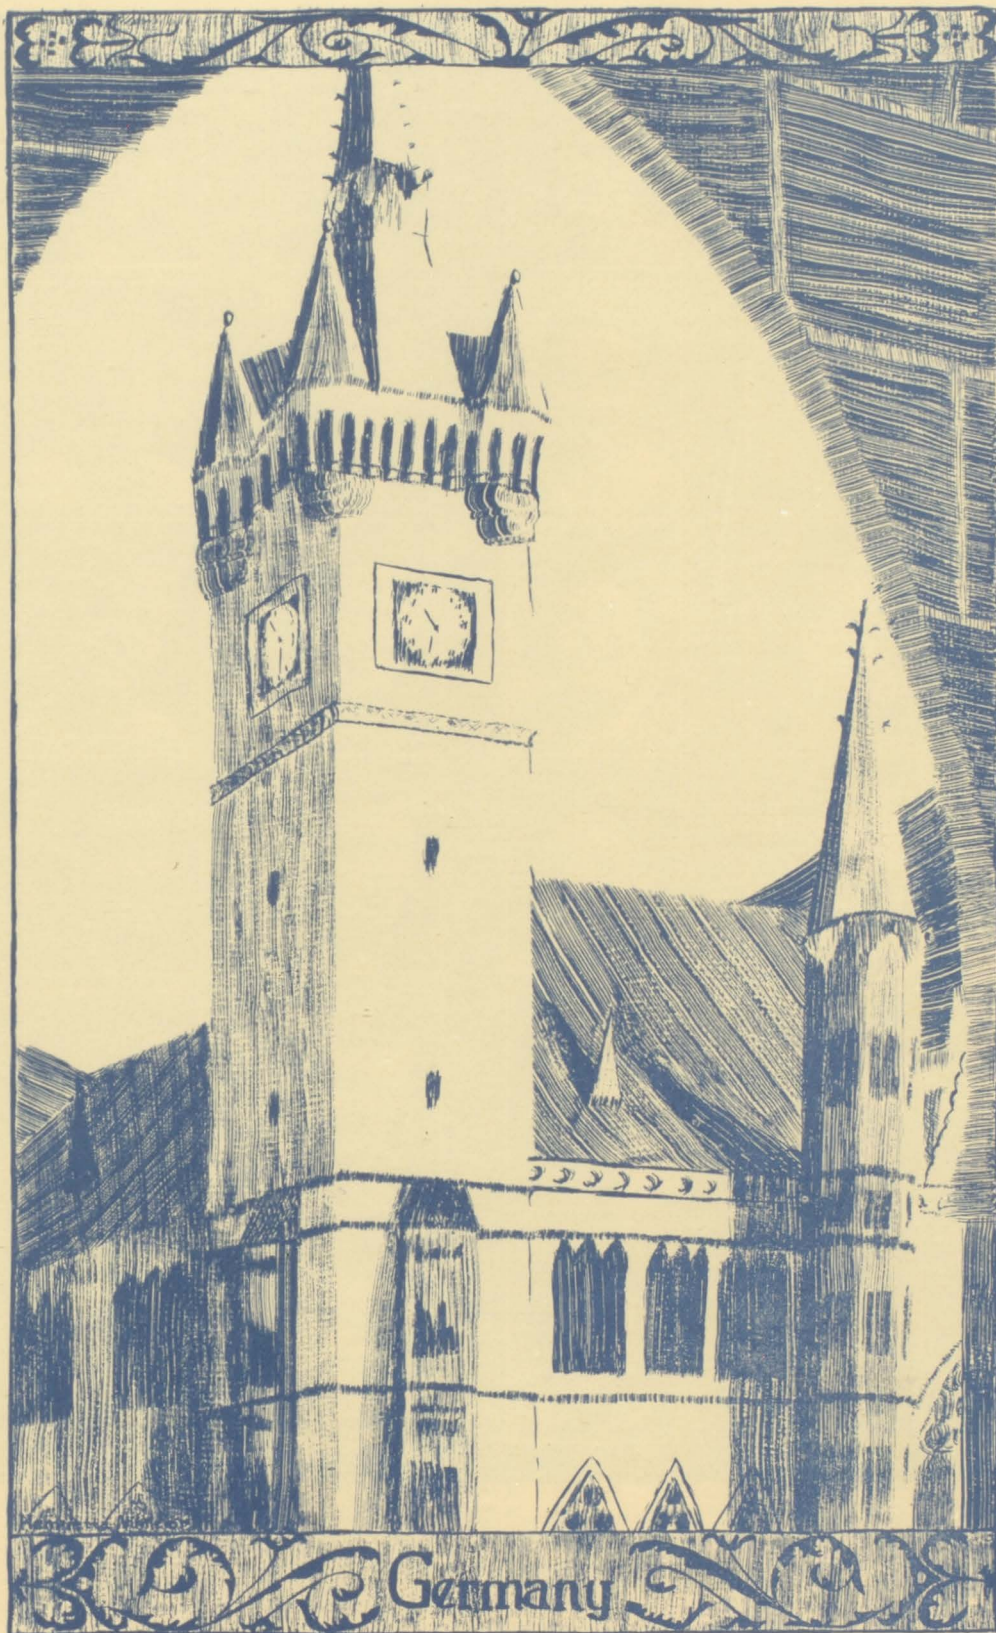

C o n t e n t m e n t

Sitting by a babbling brook,
By my side a friendly book,
Gazing at the leafy trees,
Watching birds and honey bees
Joyously flitting to and fro.
I often wonder where they go.
Conscious of the mystic world
With its subtle hues unfurled,
I'm content to love and live,
Commune with God and to give
Thanks for birds and healing breeze,
For singing brook, and heav'nward trees.

—WALLACE HENDERSON.

International Friendship Club

WORLD peace is a problem that has been confronting our national leaders for the past ten years; and the problem cannot be solved unless world friendliness is taught to the younger generation, for the young people of today will be the national leaders of tomorrow. The International Friendship Club has endeavored to promote friendship among the students of Fresno High School, thereby helping to establish a firm foundation for good feeling among the nations of the world. The programs of this club have been such that the students have formed friendships that will endure. Each program has been about some foreign country, and has consisted of talks, dances, songs, and plays by the members of the club. An illustrated talk on Spain by Miss Francis Rogers, and a talk on Turkish customs by Paul Tahmisian were very much enjoyed.

Many of our members have taken an active part in international correspondence, and have received interesting letters from foreign lands. We have also endeavored to improve the health and happiness of the children in certain sections of Mexico, by sending to them medicine and playground apparatus.

A National Friendship Club Convention was held this year in Berkeley, which was attended by delegates from many nations of the world. Several members from our Fresno Club attended this meeting.

The social affairs of this club have been outstanding. There was a halloween party, a Chinese dinner in December, and the annual banquet in the spring, which was attended by many members and alumni.

During Institute Week the boys of the International Friendship Club had charge of the High School Co-op; and the girls, dressed in costumes of foreign lands, served tea to the teachers in the social room.

A great part of the club's success during the past year was the result of the active interest of the club sponsor, Miss Ethel Stubblefield.

California Scholarship Federation

CHAPTER forty-five of the California Scholarship Federation is a branch of a state wide organization and consists of those students who have distinguished themselves by attaining high scholarship. To excel in scholarship is not the only objective of the club. Consequently it has conducted many successful projects during the past year.

Faithful to its motto "Scholarship for Service," the C. S. F. members have endeavored to help students who are less fortunate in their work and to affect better scholarship in the school. During the past year the Scholarship coasting staff has given private instruction to students.

Many earnest students who desire to enter college are in need of money. These students are extended the opportunity of college entrance by means of the Scholarship loan fund.

As a reward for their good work and as a token of appreciation of their trustworthiness the faculty of Fresno High School has granted the members of the C. S. F. the use of the privilege card. This card enables the members to have certain privileges which the other students are not allowed to enjoy.

A graduate of Fresno High School who has been a member of the C. S. F. for two-thirds of his high school attendance, including one semester of his senior year, is known as a seal bearer. A gold seal is placed upon his diploma to signify this distinction, and a certificate and a pin of life membership in the California Scholarship Federation are presented to him.

Those who have earned life membership during the past year are Armen Alchian, Masami Nakano, Naboru Nakashima, Mary Frances Garland, George Solnar, Wilma Conn, Mavis Londquist, Amata Reilly.

An important factor of the C. S. F. is its attractive social events. The most distinguished of these was the annual banquet which was enjoyed by many members and alumni. The social events also included a sophomore welcome party and a Washington's Birthday celebration.

Girls' League

THE GIRLS' LEAGUE gives you greeting,
And begs you lend an ear.
For we have had a busy
And most constructive year.

We welcomed all the new girls
With a party at the gym.
Ran relays, danced and sang;
We entertained with vim.

And then we gave the "Freshies"
A most complete surprise;
We served the assembled gathering
With icy Eskimo Pies.

We've held our regular meetings;
Our officers we've installed.
A play the Mummers gave
And loudly were recalled.

When cares have sore beset us,
And worries round us clung,
We've had community singing,
And away our blues we've sung.

Now, next we went to Turlock,
This time to the convention.
Since Fresno Hi was secretary,
We gave this close attention.

So early in the morning
At dear Miss Farver's call,
Ada Ryan and Betty Bean
Met in Fresno Hi's cold hall.

Your scribe, with Miss McCardle,
Was off with those who came
To listen to a speaker;
Miss Dayman was her name.

She spoke to us most pleasingly;
Some knowledge she did send;
So thrilled that then we vowed
Mills College would attend.

And now to nineteen thirty-two
 A brand new bustling year;
 Installation services,
 A toast to Mother dear.

Next came our Blossom Day;
 The Hi-Jinx followed fast.
 Now this bad rhyme has given you
 Activities first and last.

So now, "Farewell," we say.
 And to our teachers true,
 Who've planned and worked with us,
 All praise and thanks to you.

Girl Reserves

THE GIRL RESERVES is a part of a world-wide movement sponsored by the United States. In other countries this organization is known by other names, but the purpose of the club remains the same—to give the girls ideals and friendships which they need.

One of the outstanding features of the Girl Reserves this year was an inter-club service project. Each club contributed of its time and talent to the success of the plan. We shared in this project by sending Christmas gifts to an Indian school, in giving Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, and by dressing dolls for the Republican Toy Pile.

Each year the members have an opportunity to become acquainted with some of the incoming sophomores at a prospective members' supper held at the Y. W. C. A. This supper marks the beginning of our social activities, which last throughout the semester.

Being eager to have a well rounded program, Girl Reserves have not overlooked athletics. This was accomplished through hikes, swims, and athletic tournaments.

During the fall semester the Girl Reserves participated in a national celebration of the 50th anniversary of girls' work in the Y. W. C. A. Every spring a delegation of Girl Reserves attends the San Joaquin Valley Conference. This year it was held in Porterville.

Portia Club

THIS year the Portias have enjoyed an active and constructive year by carrying on varied and appropriate activities. The most enjoyable activity of all was an alumni dinner given at the Californian Hotel. The Portias enjoyed many interesting debates and book reviews. The annual Portia-Hypatia basketball game was held at the Y. W. C. A. gym, after which a swim and a dinner were enjoyed.

The membership was as follows: Phyllis Armstrong, Ruth Aynesworth, Wilma Conn, Betty Cooper, Marjorie Cribb, Joy Crossland, Vivienne Gaines, Jean Hemphill, Annette Herbert, Blanch Hestbeck, Dorothy Jackson, Mary Evelyn Johnson, Lucille Newman, Bea Palmer, Bernice Roche, Ada Ryan, Sybil Goldstein, Gretchen Schultz, Dorothy Hudson, Mary Sherzer, Alberta Slocum, Jimmie Standiford, Peggy Tolton, Katherine Verble, Katherine White, Janice Gish, Elizabeth McCormick, Margaret Ratcliffe, Greta Linstrom, Mildred Lincoln, Juliet Broughton, Nina Jackson, Jeanette Wagner, Georgia Broughton, Claire McVey, Margaret Schaaf, Opal Lambert, Venus Hanes.

Hypatias

HYPATIAS represents one of the oldest and most prominent girls' clubs in Fresno High School. The purpose of this club is to promote literary and social activities among its members. It has enjoyed a very successful year under the able direction of the officers and sponsor, Miss Emily Drury. The regular meetings were held every Wednesday afternoon. The business of the club occupied the first half of the meeting, while an interesting program and a social gathering were enjoyed the last half of the hour.

Nine main activities were enjoyed this year. A charming tea early in the fall was given in honor of all new and prospective members. At a rally in October, a clever football stunt won the applause of the audience. In December more than a hundred couples enjoyed the hospitality of the Hypatias at their annual semiformal dance. At the club essembly in January, a very interesting skit was presented. In February, the second membership tea, at which the Valentine motif was carried out, proved a great success. Later in the spring the girls entertained at a delightful tea in honor of their mothers. Next the annual Portia-Hypatia basketball game was played, followed by a swim and a feed. The spring sport dance was a distinctive and delightful affair. The final event was the Senior Farewell Party.

The officers for the past year were the following: Presidents, Marie Stupka, Jean Graham, Lena Georgetti. Vice-presidents, Nelle Smith, Lena Georgetti, Thyra Bernhauer. Secretaries, Jean Graham, Margaret Morton, Eleanor Drenth. Treasurers, Julia Knowles, Marjorie Mhyte, Enid Harkleroad. Historians, Marjorie Whyte, Enid Harkleroad, Edna Mae Kirkpatrick. Debating, Eleanor Drenth, Ruthelaine Farley, Madeline Daniels. Reporters, Ada Keck, Doris Bandy, Doris Rennix. Sergeants-at-arms, Dorothy Jarvis, Madeline Daniels, Katharine Buel. Commissioners of Athletics, Marie Stupka, Doris Bandy.

The members of the Hypatias were as follows: Doris Bandy, Gladys Bingham, Thyra Bernhauer, Katharine Buel, Ruby Carlson, Madeline Daniels, Margaret Douglas, Eleanor Drenth, Ruthelaine Farley, Lena Georgetti, Jean Graham, Enid Harkleroad, Eilene Ingram, Dorothy Jarvis, Ada Keck, Ruth Kellner, Melba Kenneaster, Edna Mae Kirkpatrick, Julia Knowles, Margaret Morton, Marguerite Murphey, Dorothy McBrian, Doris Rennix, Marie Stupka, Dorothy Wallace, Dorothy Warner, Marjorie Whyte and Nancy Spencer.

Gym Club

GYM CLUB, the one and only girls' club devoting itself entirely to girls' athletics, has come through the past year very successfully. The members spent half of each meeting in the gymnasium playing games, such as basketball, handball, baseball and hockey.

The first event on the social calendar was a Welcome Party for the new and the prospective members. The affair took the form of a hobo hike on which the girls, dressed in jeans, moved on in a body, to Lane's Bridge. The enticing menu consisted of baked potatoes, pickles, weinies, buns, and apples. By way of initiation, the new members were put through a very brief but extremely effective ducking stunt.

Alas! In October a crushing blow fell! To their utter surprise and disappointment the girls were miserably defeated by the teachers of the P. E. department, in a game of volley ball.

In November the mothers were entertained at a delightful tea. The guest of honor was Mrs. Maude Ellis, former sponsor of the club. After seeing the tempting array of food behind the scenes, Mr. Gaines and Mr. Kratt were quite willing to assume, as guests, the role of mother pro tempore. After an entertainment consisting of piano selections, a violin solo, and a reading, refreshments were served.

On December nineteenth the club members enjoyed a Christmas party. Each girl was dressed as a "kid" and was kindly remembered by Santa.

In early January the annual skating party was held. Aside from a few minor injuries, sustained from distressingly awkward falls, the club members pronounced the party a huge success.

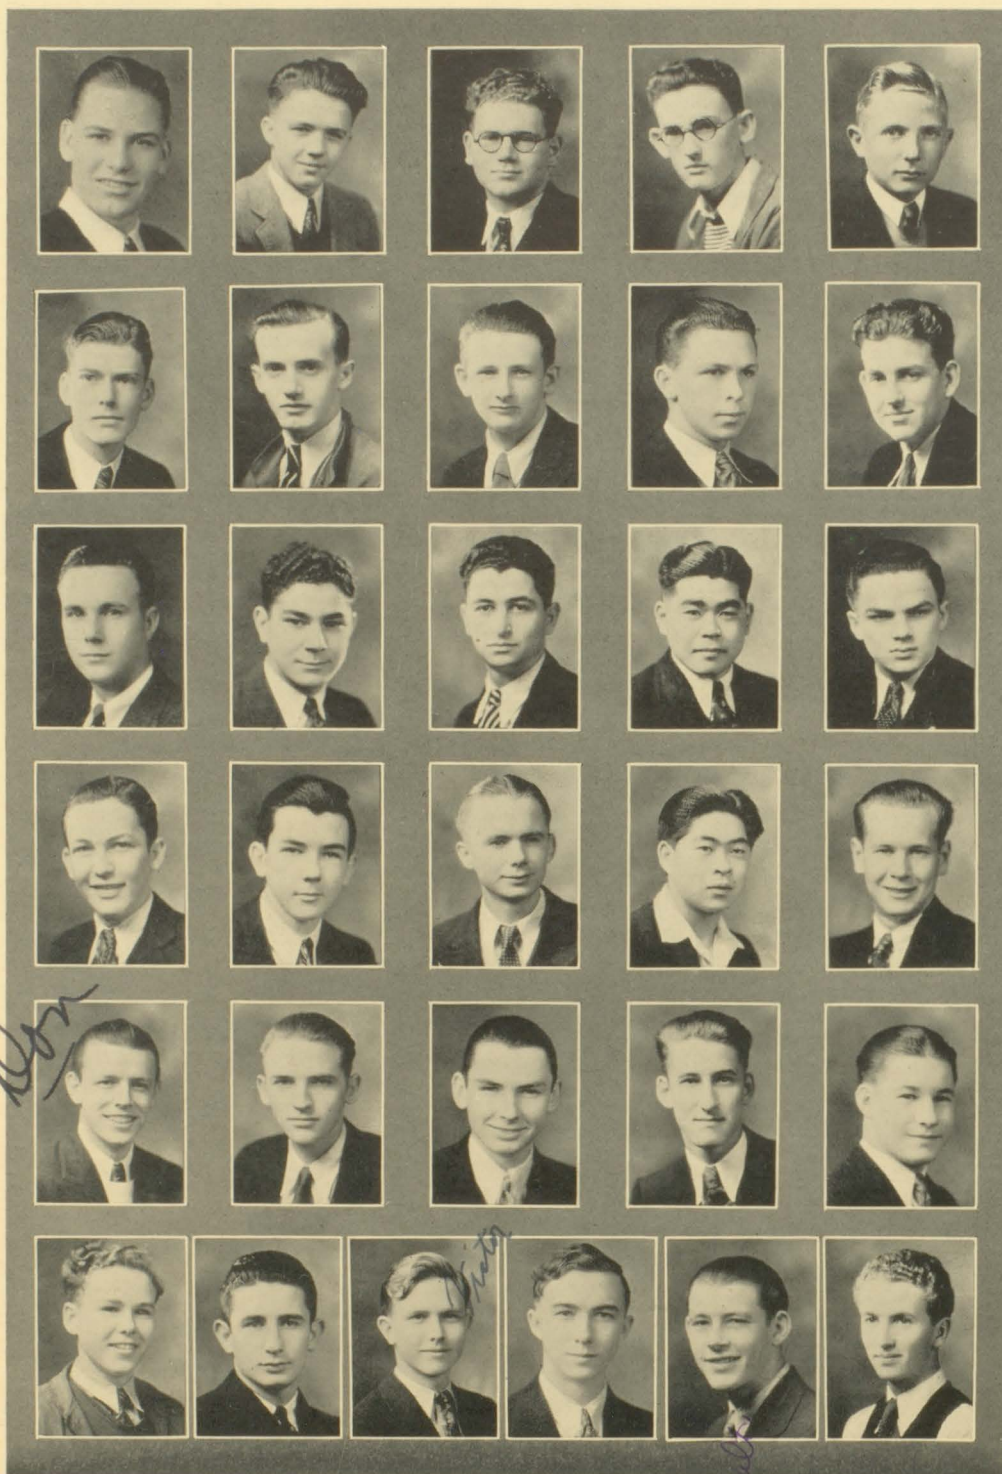

For the first time in the history of Fresno High School, the girls enjoyed a Sports Spread, which, in the form of a banquet, was the occasion for the presentation of girls' athletic awards. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gaines, Mr. and Mrs. Kratt, Dr. and Mrs. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Hubbard, Miss Swift and Miss Farver. The tables were decorated in class colors and each class sang songs and gave class yells. The Gym Club was glad to sponsor the first Spread, an activity which will in all probability become an annual event on the social calendar of the Gym Club.

Other interesting events were a swimming party at the Y. W. C. A., a skating party, and a farewell party for graduating seniors.

Engineers

THE purpose of the Fresno High School Engineers' Club is to discuss problems of engineering interest, and to learn something of actual engineering practice by listening to talks by men of this city, and by members of the club. In connection with this study of engineering problems and accomplishments, the club has visited places in and near Fresno, in order to see constructions which are dependent upon some sort of engineering skill. One excursion was made to Balch Camp, where the power developments there were studied. Hiking, swimming, fishing and eating were also given due attention.

Later in the year, when trips to the mountains became impossible, local excursions were made. The plant of the Fresno Morning Republican was visited, and many details of printing a newspaper were explained. One afternoon the local offices of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph were invaded by members of the club. The great work of the telephone engineers was brought to our attention by every part of the vast and complicated system of telephone communication.

Another very interesting excursion was that made to the cotton-seed establishment south of Fresno. Here the mysteries of converting the product of the field into cotton seed oil, furniture, fertilizer, stock food, etc., were made clear.

During the past year, the Engineers' Club has been entertained and instructed by many speakers, including Dr. Burbidge and Mr. Jack of the Fresno State College, Mr. Chester Warlow, who showed some interesting moving pictures of the High Sierras, and Mr. Allan Hall, who told of a geology trip taken by several college students last summer.

Since the Fresno High School Engineers' Club came into existence in the fall of 1930, it has played an important part in stimulating interest in engineering, among the students of Fresno High. It has become one of the most successful clubs of the school. Much of the success of our club may be attributed to the efforts of Mr. G. E. Anderson, our sponsor. He has always proved willing to lend a helping hand in any of our difficulties.

The Fresno High School Engineers' Club hopes to enjoy at least one week-end in the mountains each spring. At such times we shall endeavor to glean what we may from any objects of engineering interest which present themselves.

A g o r a

THIS is station F-H-S broadcasting on a frequency of 1932 kilocycles. For the next few minutes you will be entertained by Professor Agora, who will talk to you about one of the outstanding clubs of Fresno High School, the Agora Public Speaking and Debating Club.

Professor Agora:

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. For my topic tonight I have chosen a subject which I am sure will be of interest to all of you.

Several inquirers have written in to ask how Agora came by its name. Let me answer this question.

In the city of ancient Athens one of the busiest sections was the market place. Here not only hucksters shouted their wares and merchants drove sharp bargains, but also many men of the town, educated thinking men, came together to exchange ideas. If a man had a special message for the good of the city, he would be sure to find an audience in the market place. So here would he mount a platform, and to the gathering crowd, would deliver himself of what was on his mind. Sharp debates took place on questions of the day. It was the public speaker's paradise. The Greek name for this market place was "Agora," so you can see why twenty-six years ago, when three teachers of Fresno High, among them our present Mayor Leymel, wished to start a public speaking club they chose the name of the old Athenian market place as a fitting name for the organization they sponsored.

At the weekly meetings, debates were held on live subjects. Parliamentary practice was indulged in. Several times in the fall the meetings were held at Lane's Bridge. Hot dogs are always popular with Agorans.

This year the Agora renewed an old custom of giving a dance. The idea of winter sports was carried out by means of copious cotton-batten icicles and toboggans, skis, snowshoes, etc. galore. Everyone present voted the dance a huge success.

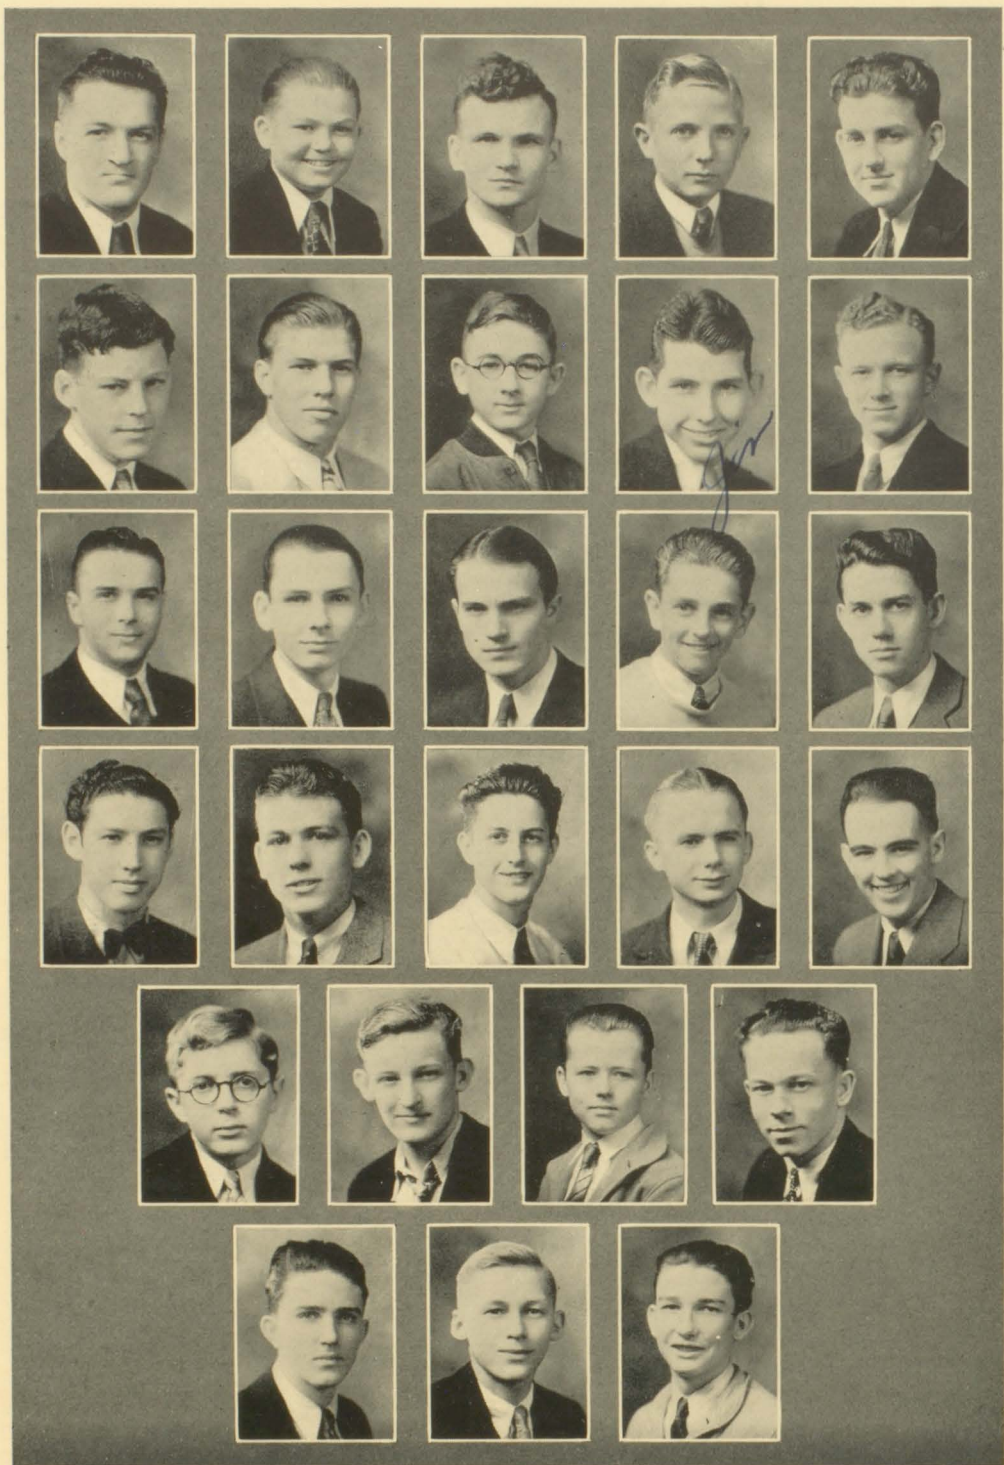

The annual snow trip was held during January at Meadow Lakes. The members spent their time tobogganing, skiing, sliding—and eating.

Other events on Agora's program were a Senate-Agora Debate, several "eat-togethers" in the Cafeteria at noon, trips to Millerton and other nearby places of interest and the annual picnic with its swim, wienie roast and football game by the light of the camp fire. At this final affair the boys held their last meeting, installed new officers for Fall and renewed their pledges of allegiance to the work of carrying on the program of this real boys' club.

Good night, all.

Senate

THE purpose of the Senate, the oldest organization in Fresno High School, is to instruct its members in the use of parliamentary law, and to develop their interests in debating, public speaking, and leadership. By selecting its membership from the sophomore and junior classes, the Senate assumes responsibility for the training of its members. Since one of the purposes of the Senate is to develop leadership, many of the members of this organization have been chosen as class officers and as student body leaders. During the past year this club furnished the following student body officers: George Solnar and George Newark, presidents; James Quinn, vice-president; George Newark and Earl Dillon, commissioners of finance; Charles Williams and Earl Dillon, commissioners of debating, and Claude Calloway, commissioner of athletics. The Senators who served as class presidents were James Quinn "33," Claude Calloway "32," and Denver Peckinpah "34."

The Senate, being primarily a debating organization, carries on numerous debates at its meetings, and also participates in an annual debate with the Agora. As a result of the practice and excellent training afforded by their club, Earl Dillon and Claude Calloway served as members of the Fresno High School debating team.

Many of the Senators participated in several athletic events. The most important of these were the annual Senate-Agora football game, and the Senate-Agora basket-ball game.

The members of the Senate have not neglected their social duties. They sponsored two very successful dances, one in the spring and one in the fall. The annual Senate banquet was an outstanding social event, and was attended by many alumni. The Senate-Portia picnic climaxed the club's social activities.

With the cooperation and the active interest of the sponsor, Mr. John Mock, the Senate accomplished much that proved of value not only to the members of the club, but also to the entire student body of Fresno High School.

Debating

THE primary purpose of debating in Fresno High School is to stimulate the interest and thinking of the students along the line of world problems. A good debate not only enlightens the audience concerning some question of the hour, but tends to stimulate the alertness of the students to the problems with which they will have to grapple later in life. A debate tends to encourage the straight thinking of the students by showing that the only way to approach a question intelligently is by scrutinizing it from every angle.

Fresno High School Varsity Squad has participated in six Central California Public Speaking League debates. The first two on the subject "Resolved: That the United States should recognize Soviet Russia" were with Hillmar and Modesto High Schools. Earl Dillon and Ralph Garebedian, of Fresno defeated the Hillmare team in a very animated argument, and Claude Calloway and Howard Richards lost to Modesto High in a closely fought contest at Modesto.

The next two debates were with Ripon High School's Championship Team and Sonora High School's Squad, on the question "Resolved: That the United States should cancel the war debts." Earl Dillon and Ralph Garebedian lost to Ripon High School, while Howard Richards and Paul Bartlett dashed up to Sonora and defeated the Sonora Team.

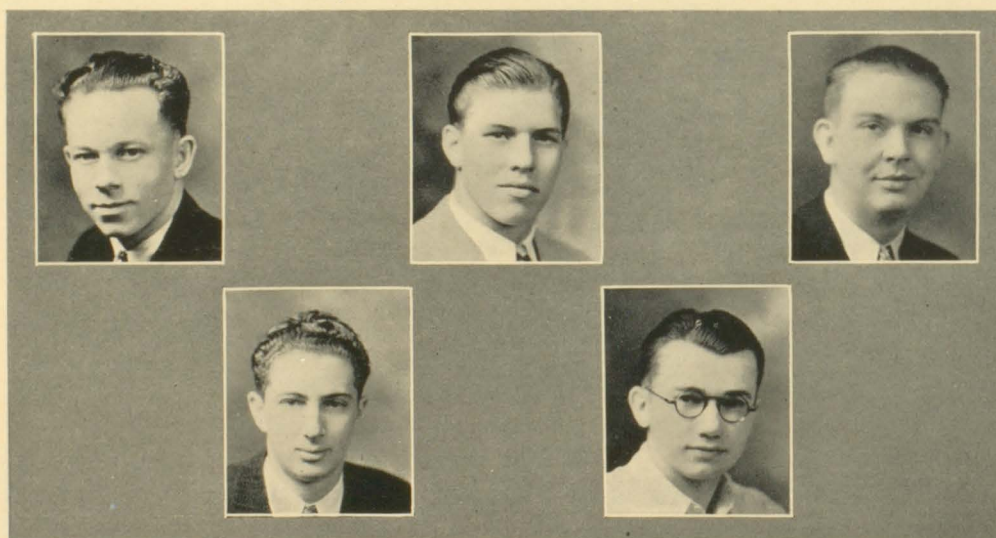

In the last two debates, because of the withdrawal of Ceres and Turlock from the last series, the Fresno teams met both the affirmative and negative of Hughson in simultaneous debates at Fresno High School, on the proposition "Resolved: That American industry should adopt the five day week." Both the affirmative composed of Earl Dillon and Ralph Garebedian, and the negative composed of Jane Dillon and Howard Richards, won the unanimous decision of the judges.

Paul Bertlett

Claude Calloway
Ralph Garabedian

Earl Dillon

Howard Richards

Besides these major debates, Fresno High Sophomore squad tussled with Roosevelt on the question "Resolved: That the United States should adopt a plan of unemployment insurance." Although Mr. Metzler's forensic machine threatened to crush its opponents, Fresno lost both of the contests. Bryson Maxwell, Blaine Pettitt, Jane Dillon, and Dorothy Scott were big threats and made Roosevelt tremble under the vigor of their attack.

Altogether Fresno High School has had a successful debating season. Out of our six major contests we have won four, but the decision is the least important part of a debate. At all the debates, the student body has given its hearty support and filled to capacity the debate hall. We are expecting three more contests this year, one with Bakersfield and two with Roosevelt.

The Sophomore teams which will meet Roosevelt on the proposition "Resolved: That Mexican Immigration Should be Put on a Quota Basis" are composed of Herbert Levy and Dudley St. John, affirmative; Blaine Pettitt and Dorothy Scott, negative, and Bryson Maxwell, alternate. The teams which will meet Bakersfield in a dual debate at Fresno on the Proposition: "Resolved: That the Best Interests of the Country Will Be Served by Returning the Democrats to Power," will be composed of Fresno High veteran debaters, Paul Bartlett, Earl Dillon, Ralph Garebedian and Howard Richards.

Extemporaneous Speaking and Oratory

One of the important extra-curricular activities of Fresno High is that of Extemporaneous Speaking and Oratory; both are growing in popularity year by year. Howard Richards represented us very creditably in the extemporaneous speaking contest at Turlock last December.

The big oratorical contest of the year is that on the Constitution, sponsored by the newspapers, particularly the Los Angeles Times. Prizes ranging from five and ten dollars to a trip to Europe are scattered all the way along the different stages of this contest. In the local meet Thelma Samuelly and Earl Dillon took first and second place. This entitled them to meet Roosevelt and Edison Technical, where Earl took first place and Thelma third. Earl will represent the city of Fresno in the Valley contest at Bakersfield.

We are entering two other contests this year, one on George Washington in the local schools, and the other in the contest of the Central California Public Speaking League.

Purple and Gold Players

THE Purple and Gold Players is the oldest high school dramatics organization in the city of Fresno. The players aim to develop dramatic ability, to give instruction in play production and make-up, and to study plays and actors.

Besides the theater work, the players have many good times together. Each semester they give club dances to which each member is allowed one guest couple. Last fall they opened the club social calendar with their fall dance held in the library. They closed their major social activities this spring with another dance in which they featured the "Beach Idea." During the fall semester the club entertained one afternoon for the junior play casts of "Adam and Eva."

The talent catalogue which they started two years ago was kept up by that committee and is on file in the main office.

A feature of the spring semester was the lessons in make-up, which were given for members and guests by Ralph Clanton, a member of the club, who has made a name for himself on account of his excellent work in make-up.

At the performances of the Washington Bi-centennial pageant several members acted as hosts and received the performers from other schools.

The Players are interested in the major activities of the school, and each year they are well represented in all dramatic and musical productions of the school.

Each year members do outstanding bits of work in similar organizations in the city. This year Claudine Ostrander was cast as the lead in "Polly With a Past" for Fresno Players. Ralph Clanton took charge of numerous make-up jobs in town, for clubs, churches, Fresno Players and State College.

The meetings offered an opportunity for the players with less experience to appear before a group and to try their wings. Many plays were read by individuals, and musical dance numbers made up the rest of the programs.

Mummers

MUMMERS were organized about five years ago by some ambitious students who were interested in dramatics (as is seen by our name) and who had not heretofore had a chance to do as much work in that line as they wished. Our old friend Mr. L. G. Muller was chosen as sponsor and advisor for this organization, and has done some very wonderful work with the club.

The aim and work of the Mummers is to furnish entertainment at any time to anyone who is interested. We have performed this year for the Community Chest benefit, Fresno High School assemblies, Hamilton Junior High School assemblies, and also for many other public and social functions. We hope to continue our work as well in the future as we have this year.

The Play Festival given in March on which occasion three one-act plays were offered to a selected audience proved again that this up-to-date dramatic organization is capable of doing excellent work.

The members of the club were as follows: Peggy Daniels, Elinor Dostal, Margaret Douglas, Sybil Goldstein, Gladys Hall, Ethel Holdomb, Axel Johansen, Evelyn Levi, George Newark, Gladys Paige, Ada Ryan, Ann Swartz, Kathrine Lisenby, Peggy Thomas, Onyet Watson, Pat Cole, Barbara Dennis, Betty McKensie, Mary Henderson, Ina White, Maybelle Stujing, Helen Scott, Elanore Gallup, Jean Hemphill, Jeane Cass, Alice Warner, Gladys Roberts, Henrietta Neilmier, John Romano, James Strachn, Denver Colby, Carl Fergurson, Frances Gardiner, Helen Wood, Marthida Beal, Nancy Spencer, James Burkholder, Helen Holcomb, Mary Dougherty, Ruth Miller, Jim Forkner, Ruth Brown, Indson Sturtenart, Clyde Beakly, Roy Thorpe, Ray Kunselman, Wheeler Wright, Bill Theede, Bud Smith.

Parent-Teacher Association

THE year 1931-32 has been a decisive one in the history of Fresno High School P.-T. A. It has seen the readjustment of P.-T. A. organization, following the advent of fathers as members and as officers. The year's objective has been the interpretation of Fresno High School to the parents of its students and an interested public. Regular evening meetings have been held at which there have been speakers who have stressed this theme. There have been discussions of school activities, musical programs most kindly furnished by students and friends, and a happy social hour. In February a special meeting was held to introduce to the parents of new students, the faculty, activities program, and the equipment of the school. There has also been initiated a system of parent class sponsors, these being in addition to the usual teacher sponsors. The P.-T. A. has shared in two community nights, one in December, which took the place of the regular meeting, and one in March when the P.-T. A. joined with alumni and students in presenting the program. The Fresno High School P.-T. A. has also been honored by being awarded the Fresno City Council Cup given for membership increase. The year's success has been due to the fact that teachers have been a vital part of the association, that Parent has become Parents, and that both Teachers and Parents have worked enthusiastically with, and for the Student Body of the Fresno High School.

Ring and Mat

THE Ring and Mat Club, sponsored by Erwin Ginsburg, is an athletic organization for a group of boys in Fresno High School, who are interested in athletic sports. The boys are taught the rules of various sports, such as boxing, wrestling, and tumbling. They also learn the finer points of many of the games played during the school recreation period. Great interest was shown by the intensive program carried out during the past year.

4-H Club

BOYS' and girls' 4-H Club work is a publicly supported and directed educational enterprise of the United States Department of Agriculture, state agricultural colleges and county governments co-operating. The Fresno High 4-H Club is designed to teach through doing, and is so organized as to teach better practices in agriculture and home economics, and the finer things of rural life; while at the same time it develops wholesome, public-spirited boys and girls.

One of the essentials of membership is that each individual shall learn and demonstrate some practice in agriculture or home economics under the guidance of a competent leader, keep a record of his work, make a public exhibit, and make a report on it to the county extension agent.

One of the most important events that the boys and girls of Fresno County look forward to is the 4-H convention held at Davis while the State Fair is in progress. This gives the students a chance to visit the State Fair.

The Fresno High 4-H Club meets twice a month. If the weather permits, the club visits some experimental garden, a factory, a farm, an individual project, or some other activity pertaining to agriculture. The members also take part in social events, holding wiener roasts, swimming meets, and picnics.

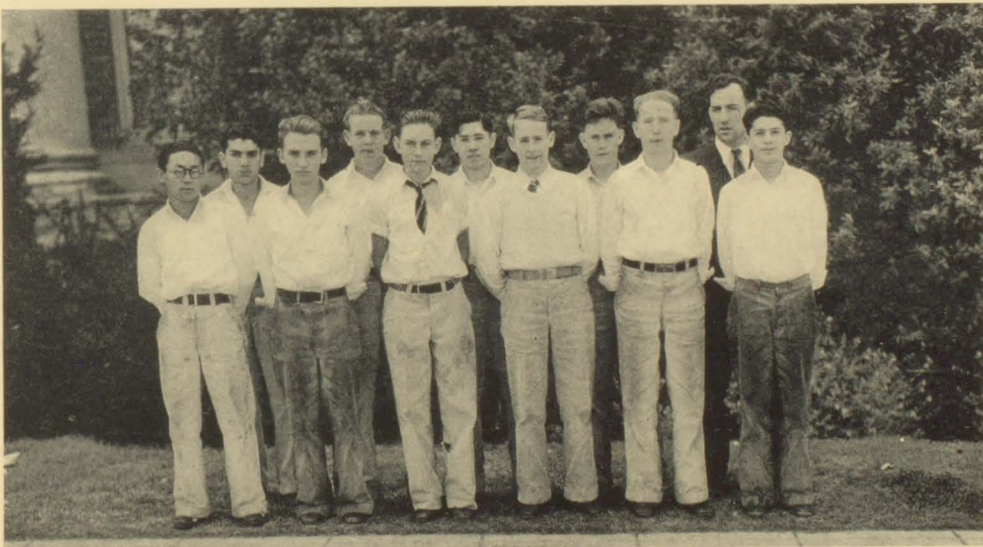

Mr. Lemon, an authority on agriculture, makes a very active and interested sponsor for the 4-H Club of Fresno High School.

Our Coaches

In praising our teams we sometimes do not give sufficient credit to our coaches, who this year have led their charges to the successful completion of a glorious athletic season. Through expert guidance and a thorough system of coaching, our coaches have imbued their players not only with a scientific knowledge of every game, but also with a spirit of sportsmanship and fair play.

Our head coach Mr. Leo Harris, a graduate of Stanford University, where he participated in football, basketball, and boxing, has a record to be envied. This year he coached a football team which won the first San Joaquin Valley championship for Fresno High School in many years. At the beginning of the school year it was thought that the Fresno High School would have a mediocre basket-ball team, but through Coach Harris' hard work as well as that of the players, the team won the second San Joaquin Valley championship within the year. The students of the school feel that this is a record to be proud of.

Coach Erwin C. Ginsburg, a graduate of Fresno State College, has also done a fine piece of work this year. In addition to assisting Coach Harris in football, he coached the 130 pound basket-ball team. Ginsburg's teams have been among the best in the division; in fact, his teams have twice won the division title. He also coached the track team which has been a winner.

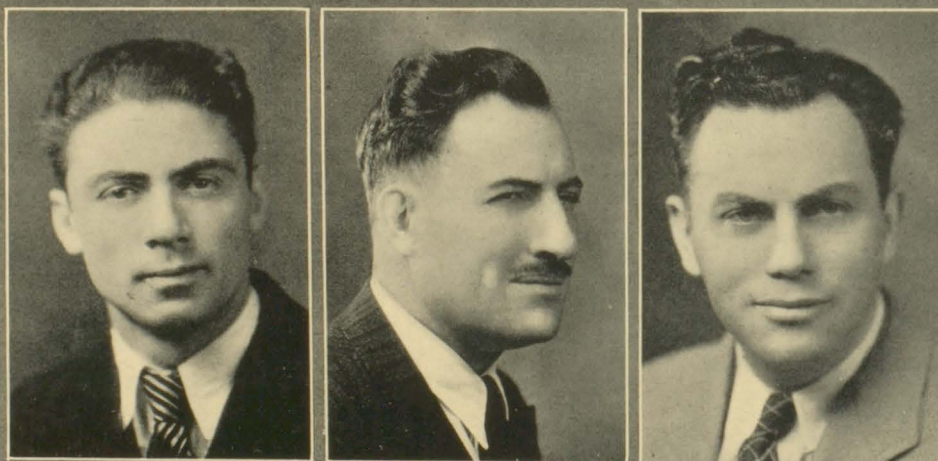

J. P. Lemon, our Lightweight football coach has a record to be proud of, although his team did not score for a county title as was done in 1931. However, the record made by this year's lightweight team speaks well for future Warrior material.

Mr. Maxwell, this year the latest addition to the coaching staff, well deserves a word of thanks for his invaluable services.

Unlimited Football

Though only a few regulars of the previous season returned, the varsity coaches and players set out to achieve a feat never, until this year, equaled by a Fresno High School varsity since its entrance into the California Interscholastic Federation. The squad worked hard throughout the entire season and deserved to win a Valley Championship, as did Coaches Leo Harris and Erwin C. Ginsburg, who so successfully guided the team through its difficult schedule. The student body also deserves praise for the team's success, for never before has such spirit prevailed at rallies and at games.

With only two weeks' practice under their belts the Warriors met the veteran Madera High School team and were held to a hard-fought scoreless tie.

At the Blackstone stadium against the Fresno State Freshmen, Fresno High, rated as the underdogs, flashed a brilliant attack, both running and aerial. The Freshmen barely tied the Warriors, 6-6, after a long run by a State back.

In their first league game the fighting Warriors met the Edison Tech eleven. After a rather poor start Fresno High hit its stride and turned the Tigers back, 13-6.

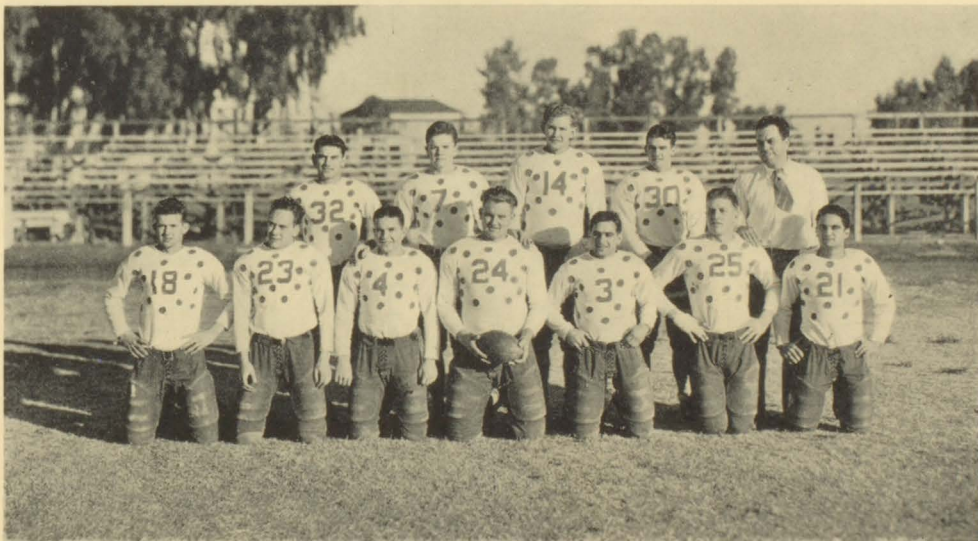

The next league game was with the Roosevelt Rough Riders, supposedly the best team in the country. Before a crowd of 7,500, one of the largest ever to witness a Fresno High School game, although they entered the game again as the underdog, Fresno High soundly trounced the heavier Roosevelt High team, 14-0. The Warriors outplayed and outfought the Rough Riders throughout the game.

The Fresno High Warriors then met the Palo Alto Norsemen, one of the best teams of northern California in a charity game. Before another large crowd the Harrismen turned back the invaders by a decisive score of 12-0.

The next obstacle in Fresno High's football machine was Selma High, supposed to be one of the threats of the league, the Warriors easily defeated the Peachpickers, 34-0, thereby practically cinching the division championship.

The Fresno High-Reedley High game proved very slow. The Warriors swamped Reedley, 46-0.

In the annual game with Fresno Tech, usually the most exciting game of the season, the Warriors whitewashed the Wolves, 58-0.

A trip to Santa Barbara for a Thanksgiving Day game was very unsuccessful. They were nosed out, 13-6, in a game played in a downpour of rain.

Fresno High defeated Merced in the Valley semi-final playoff, 20-0. After being held scoreless in the first half, the Warriors returned in the second fighting mad, and scored three touchdowns on the stubborn Merced Team. Consequently the Warriors entered the Valley final playoff with Taft High.

After traveling to Taft on a special train, the Harrismen completely overwhelmed the Taft Wildcats, 26-7, in the most exciting and hardfought game of the season. Behind at halftime, 6-7, the team refused to be beaten and smashed its way to a San Joaquin Valley Championship. The victory is said to be the most decisive and impressive championship victory in the history of valley high school football.

Lightweight Football

The Fresno High Papooses, under Coach J. P. Lemon, did not have as successful a season as did the varsity. They lost two games by the slim margin of a touchdown and one by two points.

In their opening league game the Papooses played Fresno Tech on the purple and gold field. The Wolves were pushed all over the field and were smothered by the hard hitting Papooses, 24-0.

Front row: Markarian, Avasian, Byrd, Harper, Casey, Thomas, Kellner, Bodeen, Richert, Neilson, Makasian, Minor.

The Fresno High Lightweights met the Roosevelt High Midgets in their second league game. They battled on par until the last few minutes when a forward pass by the Midgets netted a touchdown. The Papooses lost, 0-7.

The next league game against Edison Tech was easily won by the Lightweights, 19-6.

The Papooses lost the next two games. Against Reedley they lost, 13-6. A trip to Lemoore resulted in no gain for the Papooses. They lost by the slim margin of a safety, 2-0, caused by the blocking of a punt.

In the final game of their season, the lightweights were downed by the heavier, stronger, and well balanced Selma Lightweights, county champions, 20-7.

Unlimited Basketball

This year Fresno High School was represented by basket-ball teams of which everyone was proud. Pre-season dope hardly indicated a valley championship team for the Warrior unlimited squad. Since the football season was very long, Coach Leo Harris and the Warriors were unable to get down to work and hard practice very early in the season. Then, too, most of last year's experienced men had graduated, and prospects seemed to point to a very poor season.

Opening the season against the Fowler Redcats, the Warriors were trounced, 7-17, in a game which was featured by Fresno High's inability to hit the basket. Against the Fresno State Frosh, Fresno High with an improved showing, won, 22-12.

Continuing their practice schedule, the Warriors were nosed out by Madera, 22-23. Then Fresno High encountered Kerman High. After being led at the half, 5-10, they defeated Kerman, 23-21.

LIGHTWEIGHT FOOTBALL TEAM

In the first league tilt of the season, Fresno High met the Edison Tech Tigers. The game was hard-fought and the Warriors barely nosed their opponents out, 21-20.

In another practice game with Fowler High, Fresno High was nosed again, 15-16. The Warrior quintet tangled with Fresno Tech Wolves next. In this game, which was marked by many personal fouls on both sides, the Warriors played below par and were trimmed, 21-26. Fresno High then traveled to Palo Alto where they met the Stanford Freshmen quintet. The Stanford players, being more experienced, beat the Warriors, 23-15.

In the crowded Longfellow gymnasium the Warriors flashed a vastly improved game and soundly trounced our old rivals, Roosevelt High School, 21-12. Visalia was the Warriors' next victim. The Warrior basketekers won easily, 33-9. The Warriors trounced Madera, 29-15 in a practice game, which was slow and listless; and then, continuing their winning stride and playing a snappy, heads-up brand of basket-ball, the Warriors took Fresno Tech into camp, 22-14. Making a trip to Bakersfield, Fresno High nosed out the Drillers, 21-18. The Edison Tech Tigers furnished the Warriors plenty of trouble in an overtime game. Fresno High had to fight hard for this game, and finally won, 22-21, and seemingly cinched the division title. Meeting the Fresno State Freshmen again, the Unlimiteds barely nosed out a victory, 15-14, in a practice tilt.

In the concluding league battle the Roosevelt Rough Riders won a victory over the Warriors, 27-25. The result of this defeat was a tie for divisional honors between Fresno High and Fresno Tech, our ancient rivals. The Warriors went into the playoff game against Tech and won a hard game, 21-19, winning the division title and the right to enter the county championship playoffs. Playing superior basket-ball and always leading, Fresno High trimmed Reedley High, 26-16, and automatically entered the county finals.

UNLIMITED BASKET-BALL TEAM

In the finals the Warriors nosed out Kerman, 16-12, to win the Fresno County Championship for the fifth time in five consecutive years.

The Valley semi-finals game with Madera High was the next game, in which the Warriors staged a spectacular rally in the last quarter and won, 21-17.

The last impediment between Fresno High School and its second Valley Championship within a year was Porterville High. The Porterville Panthers had a wonderful reputation, and the Warriors entered the game, which was played in our gymnasium, as the underdogs. The Warriors decisively upset the Porterville cagers, 26-17, displaying a brand of basket-ball which outdid anything they had offered during the whole season. The Basket-ball San Joaquin Valley Championship is the second of its kind this year. Both the football and basket-ball teams got down to hard practice and won championships which were supposed to be beyond their reach. The school may well be proud of their success.

130-Pound Basketball

Coach Erwin C. Ginsburg's middleweights were also quite successful this season. They began the season with victories over Kerman and Longfellow, and before the arrival of the first league game, were a well-polished quintet.

In the first league game Edison Tech was barely beaten by the Fresno High 30s, 21-19.

The second league encounter was a pushover for the middleweights. They flashed a brilliant passing attack and overwhelmed the Fresno Tech 30s, 31-19. At the Longfellow gymnasium our "B" team, bowled over the Roosevelt middleweights, 24-11. Visalia was easily beaten, 14-4, as was Madera, 21-12.

130 POUND BASKET-BALL TEAM

Back row: Jones, Parker, Brewer, Turoonian, Tashima, Katlick, Burnett, Nakano, Pollard, Kaloshian, Berberian, Tao. Front row: Ginsburg, Stone.

Beginning the second half of league play, the 30s took the Tech Wolves into camp, 22-10. Determined to get revenge for a defeat handed them earlier in the season, the Edison 30s walloped the Warrior middleweights, 9-20. Turning back a last minute rally, the Warrior 130 pound quintet nosed out the Roosevelt Rough Riders, 16-14, and thereby won the division title. The County semi-finals proved disastrous for the Ginsburg flashes, for Fowler defeated them, 21-14.

110-Pound Basketball

The smallest edition of the Warrior basketball teams is the 110 pound team coached by Coach Maxwell. They made a determined but unsuccessful bid for the division title, but seemed to lack the necessary scoring punch.

In practice games they won from Washington Junior High, 20-7, but lost to Longfellow, 12-22. In the opening league game the Lightweights met Edison and were nosed out, 11-15. Neither team was able to hit the basket.

Then the 10s seemed to hit their stride and, although Tech had a large lead at half time, the Peanuts won, 24-20, finishing their second league tilt strong.

Continuing their winning, they met the Roosevelt 10s and snowed them under with a score of 22-12, thus finishing the first half of league play.

The Warrior 10s handily trimmed the Fresno Tech Wolf Cubs again, 13-7 in a slow, uneventful game.

Seeking revenge against Edison, the Warrior Peanuts went into the game determined to win but were again nosed out, 16-19.

In the final league game the lightweights encountered Roosevelt High. In a fast, well played, and hard fought game, they lost, 13-14.

Class A Track

With several sure point-winners of the previous year returning, Coach Erwin C. Ginsburg started the 1932 season with prospects of a fair Class "A" track team.

The Interclass Track Meet which is always the first meet in the Warriors' schedule uncovered some very good material. Saul Katlick looked especially good, winning places in the broad jump, shotput, high jump, and 100 yard dash. George Newark, veteran from last year, made good time in the 220 yard dash. The Warriors also showed strength in the weights and longer distances. The Seniors won Class "A" with $61\frac{1}{2}$ points to the Juniors' $48\frac{1}{8}$ points.

The track squad of Madera High School nosed out the Warrior track stars, $67\frac{2}{3}$ to $54\frac{1}{3}$. After trailing badly the Warriors awoke with a start in the last few minutes of the meet to win all three places in the discus, first place in the high and broad jumps, only to lose a thrilling 880 yard relay race by a slim margin. Saul Katlick was the star of the meet, gathering sixteen points. Fresno High's strength was in the field, but was especially weak in the hurdle events.

In the next meet Fresno High was completely outclassed by Merced High School. The Merced team won, 91-43, showing that it was a very strong contender for valley honors. S. Katlick repeated his performance of the Madera meet. He took three of the four first places taken by the Warriors. Baxter took the other in the javelin.

Fresno High was host to the Hanford track and field artists the next week. Again the Warriors were decisively beaten, 80-42, and by a team which had beaten the best teams in the valley. The Warriors made some fine showings in this meet in spite of the score. George Newark was nosed out in the 440, but the time was 52.4 seconds, which made Newark good for points in the county meet. Traves Summers heaved the discus 116 $\frac{1}{2}$ feet for another startling victory. As usual, S. Katlick was an outstanding star.

Coach Ginsburg took a mere handful of men to Tulare 20-30 Relays, and Fresno High placed well up in Class "A."

Hanford won Class "A" with 38 points, and the Warriors were fifth with 15 points.

Track-Classes B and C

In Classes "B" and "C" Fresno High School was represented by good well-balanced teams. With a large group of point winners, both teams were able to win a majority of their meets.

In the Interclass Track Meet the Class of 1933 won in Class "B" with a total of 45 $\frac{1}{2}$ points and the Class of 1934 second with 21 $\frac{3}{8}$ points. In Class "C" the Seniors won with 47 points. Mason, J. Katlick, and Burnett looked good in Class "B" while in Class "C" Gash, Markarian, Sahines and Gartiez were the stars. In fact, Gash made exceptionally fast time in the 120 low hurdles, winning in 15.8 seconds. This time was better than Class "A" established.

In their first meet Fresno High won from Madera High in both classes. In Class "B" the score was 42-26 and in Class "C" 27-23. The "B" team took four first places as well as the relay and a majority of seconds and thirds. Mason starred by taking two firsts in the hurdles and dash. In Class "C" the victory was won when Fresno High won the relay, concluding a close meet in this class. They took four firsts to Madera's two.

For Class "B" the meet with the Merced Bears was very unsuccessful. They won one first place out of a possible eight. The well-balanced Merced team literally took everything, winning 58-10. Mason took the only first place by winning the 100 yard dash. The Class "C" team continued their winning by trimming the Bears' "C" team, 20-21. They placed men in every event and took five firsts including the relay.

The meet with Hanford High was just as unsuccessful for the "B" team and just as successful for the Class "C" stars. Hanford won Class "B," 38 $\frac{1}{2}$ -29 $\frac{1}{4}$. John Katlick was outstanding in this meet. Besides running in the relay, he took two firsts and a second. The athletes of Class "C" nosed out their Hanford rivals, 26-24. They took four out of five firsts.

In the Tulare 20-30 Relays the "B" team placed second to Bakersfield High, 16 $\frac{3}{8}$ to 25 $\frac{1}{2}$ respectively. The "C" team was nosed out of second place by Visalia by $\frac{1}{2}$ a point.

Baseball

Although five regulars were lost by graduation, the prospects for the team were fair. This year the baseball squad was large and promising, so Coach Harris decided to enter two teams in two leagues. The first Warrior nine met Kerman as its first high school opponent, easily winning, 10-5. The next game wasn't so easy, but nevertheless, Fresno High won from Reedley, 4-3. The Warriors lost to Dos Palos in their next practice game.

After defeating last year's county champions, Central Union, 13-4, the Warriors met Merced with whom they played a 5-5 tie. Winning the last practice game with Sanger, 10-2, the league was opened against Washington Union, and Fresno High was downed, 4-6. Easily winning from Madera, 9-3, the Fresno High Warriors entered their second league start against Roosevelt, and again were defeated, 8-11.

In their third league start the Warriors snapped out of their slump and won, 16-15 in a free hitting game.

The warriors defeated Roosevelt in a return game, 10-8, coming from behind to win.

Intramural Football

Last fall the physical education staff began another extensive program of Intramural sports. Coaches Harris and Ginsburg decided to have football as the first sport of the year, and after a strenuous campaign extending over a period of many weeks, one team emerged as the intramural champions of touch football. The team played the faculty, who, headed by Coaches Harris and Ginsburg, easily won.

INTRAMURAL VOLLEY BALL TEAM

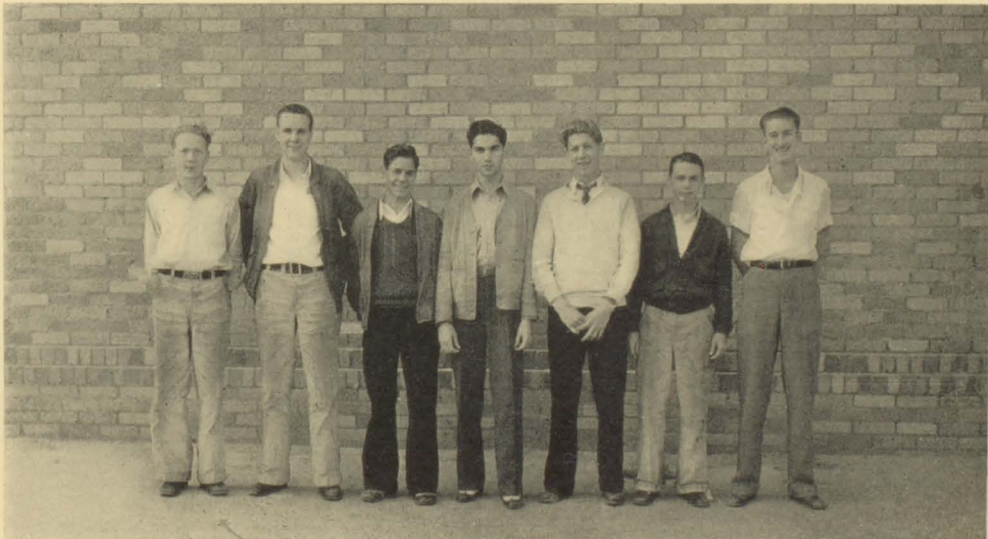

Intramural Volleyball

This year competition in volleyball was exceptionally keen. In each class there were several strong teams. The regular tournament lasted about five weeks. In the playoffs after school, the teams mixed in many exciting, hard-fought games. Ralph Jelledian managed to captain his team to a well-earned championship in the final game. Each member of Ralph's team was awarded an intramural letter.

Although volleyball is a new sport at Fresno High School, it has proven to be one of the best liked games among the boys. In fact, the winning team was so good that the coaches and faculty wouldn't play them.

INTRAMURAL TRACK

Intramural Track

The annual pentathlon took place in the spring. There were five events, the shotput, broad jump, high jump, 100 yard dash, and half mile run. To win in this sport a student must practice consistently until the trials. The five boys who made the most points were awarded intramural letters.

Intramural Basketball

In the winter months the physical education students engaged in basketball competition. They were divided into two classes according to height, and then played a tournament to decide winners in each class. Then the two winners battled, and Dick Kroupa's team came out intramural basketball champions.

Cadets

The Cadets have shown greater progress this year than during any preceding year. The selection of commissioned personnel by competitive examination produced excellent results in aiding the commandant. Cadet work builds up strong minds in strong bodies, and teaches the brain and the muscle to co-ordinate easily and naturally.

The Cadets started the season well with many new recruits in their ranks. The organization consisted of one well organized company commanded by Harold Guffey, but previously commanded by Alfred Kenney.

The outstanding event of the year was the annual Legion Competitive Drill between Fresno High Cadets and Tech Cadets, which was sponsored by the Fresno American Legion. There were three main contests as follows: the company drill, the crack squad drill, and the individual competition drill. The latter was the most interesting of the three. The contestants formed two lines and were given the manual of arms. When a contestant made a mistake, he was eliminated. The three winners were given a gold, silver, and bronze medal. Charles Agbashian of Fresno High won first place, Donald Buntner won second, and Kenneth Pfof won third. The Fresno High Cadets won the company drill, and the Tech crack squad won the squad drill. After the contests were over, a dance was held in honor of the winners.

Of paramount importance to this group was the Cadet Encampment held for a week in March. Fifty-five Cadets from Fresno High and Fresno Tech were in attendance. The camp was held at Bakersfield, and 450 Cadets from Fresno, Dinuba, Oroville, Sacramento, Porterville, and Anaheim attended. The camp was organized as that of the regular army. Colonel McGrew of the U. S. Army acted as commanding officer. Regular routine was followed; the boys rose at 6:30, drilled for a couple of hours, and lunched at 12 o'clock. In the afternoon there was drill practice and then the boys were given time off until Retreat at 5:00. After dinner the Cadets were free to leave camp. On Thursday a sham battle was fought, the first and third battalions attacking the second battalion. In this battle the Cadets learned to protect themselves under fire, to charge, to retreat, etc. After six days of fun and action, the boys returned home, tired but happy.

State Rifle Team

The Cadets have always been proud of their rifle teams. For many years Fresno High has ranged high in State and National matches. The State Adjutant General's Trophy, pictured above, has been won by Fresno High's Rifle Team for three consecutive years; and the team hopes to win it again this year. The match for this trophy is fired at Leona Heights with the heavy bore rifles.

Besides the excellent coaching of Commandant Guffey, much of the credit of the first-rate firing of the team is due to its captain, Leigh Mathias, who has given much of his time in developing the qualities in his team so necessary to good riflemen.

Hockey, a game played only by the "A" classes, was won by Miss Wright's sixth period class. The winning team headed by Esther Mitchel, showed good sportsmanship through the entire game.

Speed Ball

There was a great deal of strenuous competition in speed ball this year. Speed ball, a kicking, running and passing game, requires much practice and hard playing. The game was played by the "B" classes. The tournament was won by Miss Kaljian's fifth period class, captained by Betty McKenzie.

Basketball

After school sports have been more popular this year, with a record number of girls coming out. All in all, the rivalry and sportsmanship were exceptionally good. Basket-ball, as usual, was the most popular sport.

The class "A" basket-ball championship was won by Miss Wright's sixth period class. Grace Zollinger acted as captain. The class "B" basket-ball championship was won by Lucille Williams' first period class. Miss Williams was a student teacher from Fresno State College. A great deal of rivalry was shown by the nine other teams. Jean Andrews' team proved the winner.

GIRLS' BASKET-BALL TEAM

Amata Reilly, Latsuka Matsumato, Geraldine Nider, Jessie Arrants, Grace Thompson, Sally Osborn, Harriete Scott.

Venus TUMBLING TEAM
T u m b l i n g

The sport tumbling and pyramid building, a new activity for the students of Fresno High School, was participated in by the girls in the "A" classes. This sport has met with high favor among the girls, and many of them have become quite adept in the construction of pyramids and individual feats.

D a n c i n g

Among the many types of gymnasium work, the girls of Fresno High School learned dancing. Miss Kaljian's sixth period class formed the particular group that was interested in this sport. The girls enjoyed particularly character, athletic clogs and tap dancing.

DANCING TEAM
Geraldine Roberts, Ethel Swartz, Mary Seymore, Velma Kyleg, Margaret Dicky, Maxine Racovich, Allene Shouse, May Jing, Doris Coffey, Ella Rundall, Dorothy Smith, Helen Satterstrom, Leona Weber, Mildred Jennings.

Tennis

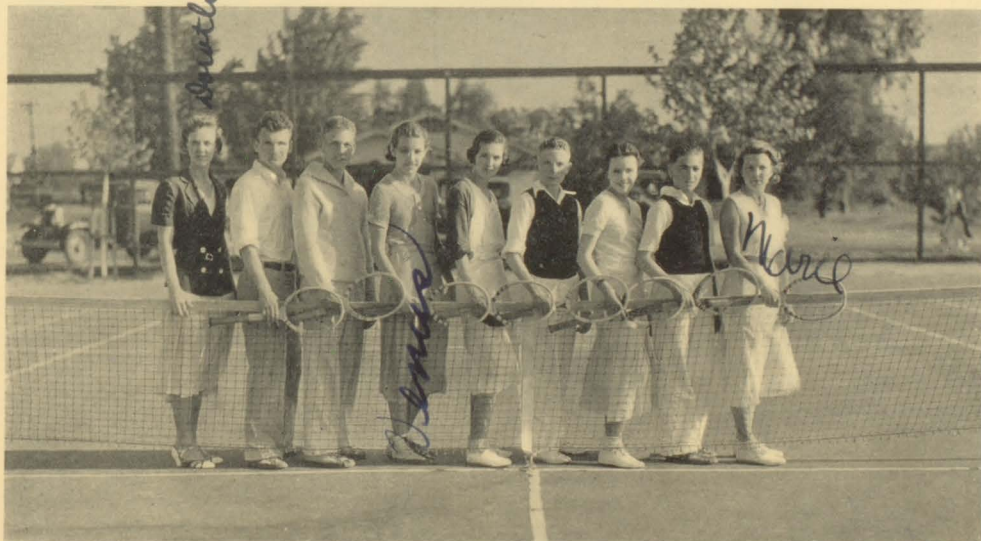

During the fall semester there was widespread interest in tennis when every girl in the school entered the Fresno Bee tennis tournaments. The winners were as follows: class "C", Melba Kenneaster; class "D", Marjorie Wakefield; class "E", Venus Hanes. These girls represented Fresno High School in the city tournament. The school-wide tournament met with such enthusiastic interest that plans are being made for a more complete tournament next fall. Miss Dorothy C. Wright proved a most excellent coach.

Last fall the Tennis Team was organized and several practice matches were played while the weather permitted. This spring the team renewed practice with even greater enthusiasm and interest. Practice tournaments were held with Roosevelt, Caruthers, Selma, and Hanford, all of which were won by Fresno High School. After much rivalry and hard practice the following team was chosen to represent Fresno High School in the sectional tournament: Charles Williams, boys' singl~~e~~s; Marie Stupka, girls' singles; Joe Joy and Glenn Steward, boys' doubles; Venus Hanes and Marjorie Wakefield, girls' doubles; Jean Mortland and Mathew Slater, mixed doubles. Fresno High School won the sectional tournament by winning three out of five titles—boys' singles, mixed doubles, and girls' doubles.

As the annual goes to press we are glad to announce that Venus Hanes and Marjorie Wakefield came through the valley finals victorious, then won the sectional matches and valley semi-finals, and later were successful in winning the valley championship in girls' doubles. Fresno High School is certainly proud of these two girls.

WOULDN'T BE HOOKED

"Here, son," said the farmer to the boy who was helping him drive a bunch of cattle. "Hold this bull a minute, will you?"

"I'd rather not, sir," answered the boy. "I don't mind being a director in this company, but I'll be darned if I want to be a stockholder."

COULDN'T BE HELPED

Teacher (sternly): "This essay on 'Our Dog' is word for word the same as your brother's."

Fred Jones: "Yes, sir, it's the same dog."

English Teacher: "Now, Paul, the word 'trousers' is it singular or plural?"

Paul Minor: "Yes, ma'am—singular at the top and plural at the bottom."

Dot Durfey: "It's snowing and sleeting and I'd like to buy some chains for my tires."

Clerk: "I'm sorry—we keep only groceries."

Dot D.: "How annoying! I understood this was a chain store."

A STOPPER

Elmer P.: What kind of a car have you?

Rex Morris: A runabout.

Elmer: A runabout?

Rex: Yes, It'll run about a black and then stop.

Diner (who has ordered tea): "What do you call this stuff anyway—tea or coffee?"

Waiter: "What does it taste like?"

Diner: "Paraffin."

Waiter: "Then it must be tea—the coffee tastes like gasoline."

Farris Humphreys: "I'm not going to school any more."

Bob Bourne: "Why not?"

Farris: "I can't learn anything. The teachers keep changing the lessons every day!"

HE WON THAT ONE

Sherman: "Do you know the difference between a taxi and a trolley?"

Ada: "No."

Sherman: "Well, then we'll take the trolley."

Sign in Oslo store window: "English spoken. Americans understood."

ZERO FOR ARCHIE

Teacher: "When I say, 'I was handsome,' I am using the past or preterit tense; when I say, 'I shall be handsome,' I am using the future tense. Now, Bill, tell me what tense I am using when I say, 'I am handsome?'"

Bill Hutton: "Pretense."

COOL ABOUT IT

Bob Cleary: "Well, I knocked 'em cold in Latin, all right."

Walt Prather: "What did you get?"

Bob: "Zero."

WHAT SHE LOOKED LIKE

"Any empty pop bottles, lady?" asked the junk man at the back door.

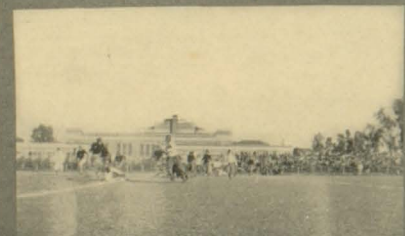

"I should say not," snapped the woman. "Do we look like we drank pop at this house?"

"Any vinegar bottles, then, lady?" he ventured.

PROFIT AND LOSS

A student, one day, was displaying his wrath,
When he had some trouble in getting his math,
Said he, "I can't get it, there's no use to try!
Why can't people live as in ages gone by?
They needed no figures for deals, it is plain,
For all their transactions turned out to be gain."
His Dad said, "You're crazy—in Bible time they
Had just as great losses as they have today."
His son got the Bible and said, "Apple sauce!
It tells here of Prophets, but never a loss."

When You Think of Diamonds

Remember that your choice from the Warner stock will please and give lasting pride and satisfaction. Many diamonds do not do this.

A tiny flaw or a touch of color often makes a diamond worth only half what it should.

Warner Diamonds are noted for their brilliancy, value, color, cutting and perfection.

What Is the Fresno Traction Company Doing for Fresno?

Development of the City:

By means of extension of its lines the Fresno Traction Company has made it possible for the outlying districts to build up into residential districts on account of being brought in close connections with the business centers.

Service:

It is possible for a passenger on the street car to ride nearly seven miles for one fare.

Transfers are given at all intersecting points to passengers traveling in the same general direction.

The California Railroad Commission's engineers who check our service claim "service appears to be more than adequate."

A Street Car System increases the value of your property.

Value of Improvements:

The California Railroad Commission has placed its value on property with the City of Fresno of over $1,500,000.00, on this amount the Fresno Traction Company is entitled to earn operating expenses and taxes, and a fair return at a reasonable rate per annum upon the capital value.

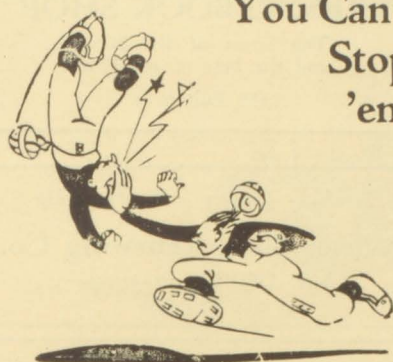

Employees and Payroll:

The Fresno Traction Company employs over 100 men the year round. These men live in Fresno, buy in Fresno and raise their families in Fresno. The Fresno Traction Company pays in wages (which is spent in Fresno) over $170,000.00 per annum.

The Fresno Traction buys all material, whenever possible, in Fresno. This means several thousand Dollars spent each year with the merchants in Fresno.

Parking:

Why worry about parking? The parking situation as it now exists is a hinderance to local business. Leave the parking spaces for the out-of-town shopper. Let's not drive them away from our city or places of business due to lack of parking space. RIDE YOUR STREET CARS—YOU WILL FIND IT CHEAPER AND MORE CONVENIENT.

INVESTIGATE THE NEW

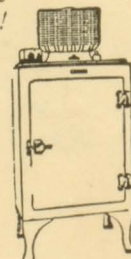

General Electric

REFRIGERATOR FOUR YEAR SERVICE PLAN

Let's get down to facts on modern refrigeration. It is misleading to focus all attention on incidental features . . . or on price tags only. The mechanism is your most important consideration in the selection of a refrigerator. When it fails, service and repair bills commence. Continuous service on a "Cheap" refrigerator can eat up the very savings modern refrigeration makes. Walter Bazuick (on farm): "There was a mouse in that bucket of milk."

Uncle Bazuick: "Did you take it out?"

Walter: "No, sir, I put the cat in."

Denby Jones: "I'd like some rat poison, please."

Clerk: "Will you take it with you?"

Denby: "No, I'll send the rats over after it."

FRESNO

Alma Mater

Our strong band can ne'er be broken,
Formed in Fresno High;
Far surpassing wealth unspoken,
Sealed by friendship's tie.

(Chorus)

Raise the chorus, speed it onward
Till the hills reply,
"Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
Hail to Fresno High."
When in future years we're turning
Leaves of memory,
Then we'll find our hearts returning,
Fresno High, to thee.

The Fight Song

We will cheer, never fear,
For a triumph near,
As we fight for Fresno High;
When the teams begin, we are bound to win,
As the backs go tearing by.
As they go never slow through a fighting foe,
We will cheer for a score loud and long,
And we'll win for Fresno High School,
As we sing our Fighting Song.

(Chorus)

We will FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT! when we're winning;
We can FIGHT whenever we choose.
We will FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT! in the morning;
We will FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT! in the night;
We are bound to win today,
As we battle in the fray,
IF we FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT!
